Sources said Delhi Police has written to social media platforms like Twitter, Facebook and Instagram to block around 70 accounts on which unverified news was posted and later shared in WhatsApp groups to instigate protesters. These messages and fake news had led to a flare-up in Jamia Nagar and other areas. During the probe into the riots at Seelampur, police identified at least a dozen WhatsApp groups being run by some locals who were copy-pasting articles and posting vi-deos from the internet to gar-ner support from protesters or asking them to stay back at ...ning. Sources said the effect of

"Along with the content, intent is important and we have found that Aksh-aya Patra's intent of serving children is growing every day, which is in sync with our gov-ernment's vision. We are hap-py with standards maintained at the kitchens, therefore, we decided to partner with the or-ganisation," said Sisodia.

All new state-of-the-art kitchens set up in Delhi are powered by green fuel, includ-ing solar power for heating wa-ter, natural gas for powering in-tiered burners, etc.

...SApp groups were being used to spread rumours about poli-cemen killing pro-testers. This was then circulated on social media to gar-ner support. The same was found during the Se-elampur riots where videos of riots elsewhere downloaded from YouTube were being used to show police brutalities on protesters.

While riots were going on in Jamia, a rumour about the death of three students during lathicharge by police and a vi-ral message about armed cops entering girls' hostels and as-saulting them led to the situa-tion turning violent in the eve-
