The HR Meet was organised for MBA final year & first year students was organised by the School of Management and Corporate Relation Cell in the auditorium of School of Management on 9th March 2013, at 11.30 am to 1.30pm.

Corporate Relation Cell invited imminent guest speakers from the industry to narrow down the academia – corporate requirement gap. The Corporate guests were Mr. Abhay Saxena, AVP HR & TQM, Hero Corporate Services Ltd., New Delhi, Mr. Amit Bajaj, GM HR, Steria (India) Ltd., Noida, Mr. Kalyan Kumar, Country Head-HR, Toll Global Forwarding India Pvt. Ltd, Gurgaon. A panel discussion was organised on “Strategic issues in Human Resource Management”. The moderator for panel discussion was Dr. Varsha Dixit Asst Professor School of Management.

The panel discussion started with the introduction and floral welcome of all the corporate guests by the faculty members of the school.

The panel called upon the students to adopt focussed and disciplined approach in life for success and gave numerous examples from his long career to make a point. They urged the students to foresee the coming opportunities in the burgeoning Indian economy and tap them by gaining more knowledge and skill development.

The panel discussion focused on providing career insights to the management students by the industry leaders who have gone through the grind and made it. The panel discussed on strategic issues like Career Management, Work-Life balance, Strategic Recruitment and Selection etc. Main messages of panel discussion were;

- Work on your communication skills.
- Competency alone is not longer a ticket to success; it's only an entrance card. Learn to communicate and have passion about your work.
- Bring together your dispassionate analytical side and your emotional side to build passion about your work and results.

The panel enlightened our students with various upcoming business trends and briefed the students how they can prepare themselves for industry in coming years.

At the end Ms. Princy Vij gave the vote of thanks and the faculty member felicitated the corporate guests with mementos.
