

Local Efforts of Sensitization for Global Environmental Concern

Eco Design Fair 2018: Creative Art Workshop

Department of Architecture Gauam Buddha University has celebrated IIIrd annual fest Eco Design Fair 2018 in presence of Vice cancellor Prof bhagwati Prasad Sharma, Eminient architect Dean D cruz from Goa, Dean Academic Prof Sweta Anand, Registrar Shri Bacchu Singhji, Dr. Indu Uprety Dean SOE, Dr. Nirmita Mehrotra, HOD Department of Architecture & Planning from Oct 10-12th 2018. The three days program aims to create environmental awareness and creative strategies to reduce climate change impacts. Program was inaugurated by Registrar, Shri Bacchu Singh ji with lighting lamp and enlighting students from various colleges about five elements of nature, that we all should and care about.

First trophy was on Design Ideas by Ar Atul Gupta. He took workshop on “Designing for Competitions & Competitions for Design”. Students submitted Designs of Smart Village. Students have been given a Design Problem of Community Centre. BIM workshop conducted by Ar. Ankit Revo, Gurugram. In GRAFFITI trophy students made Mural On Theme of Connecting Back To Nature, Iconic Buddha, Extempore, and Best out of Waste. Ankit Mishra and Archana Pandey from NGO Human Touch Foundation, Greater Noida conducted a workshop of making aromatic candles in Best out of Waste Category. This workshop was also attended by a students of social activist Mrs Bindu Gupta who conducts classes at her home for children who are unable to afford tuitions and Students of Yashodhara Shiksha.

On third Day Dean D Cruz shared his projects of last 35 years based on permaculture and how he has managed to connect back to nature through his Design Projects. Along with other National Level architects Atul Gupta from Noida Students Interaction . Vice Chancellor Prof BP Sharma distributed awards to the winners.

NGO holding workshop for students of Yashodara Shiksha Shivir, GBU besides the delegates of EDF 2018.

