Your DS-2019 form will be with Ms. Sarina Paranjape, Senior Program Officer, Indian Program, USIEF-New Delhi. Please get in touch with Ms. Paranjape about visa formalities before you go to the US Embassy, Delhi. She can be reached through email at sarina@usief.org.in and telephone number (011) 42020944.

Your travel will be arranged in consultation with you and in accordance with USIEF regulations. You will fly on airlines covered under the Fly America Act and Air India. For your travel arrangements, please get in touch with Dr. I. Jaya Bharati, Program Coordinator, Indian Program, USIEF-New Delhi at <jaya@usief.org.in> and telephone number is (011) 4209 0946.

This fellowship is for twelve months. You must be prepared to carry out your program within this period and make your plans accordingly. This fellowship provides for a dependent allowance of $200 per month towards maintenance for one principal dependent, provided the dependent is in the U.S. for at least 80% of the grant period. In addition, the principal dependent will receive round-trip transportation from your city of residence in India to the U.S. host institution. For other accompanying dependents, you will be responsible for all expenses. In case they remain in India, you should also have adequate funds to support your dependents in India for the period of the grant.

If you are employed, the fellowship has been awarded to you on the assumption that you will be given leave by your employer for your research/teaching/professional development in the U.S. This should be confirmed officially to us as soon as possible. Since funds in this program are extremely limited, no extensions are possible.

CIES, the coordinating agency in the United States, has been designated by the FSB and the U.S. Department of State to arrange, verify and supervise the professional programs of foreign scholars visiting the United States to conduct advanced research under the Fulbright-Nehru program.

You should feel free to communicate with CIES concerning any problems that may arise during your stay in the U.S. The Assistant Director for South and Central Asia at CIES is Ms. Catherine Johnston Matto <CMatto@iie.org>. Please also stay in touch with Ms. Sarina Paranjape, Senior Program Officer, Indian Program, USIEF-New Delhi at sarina@usief.org.in. All matters relating to international travel, except in the case of emergency, should be taken up directly with the Foundation in India at least two months before your departure from the U.S. It is understood that you will return to India as soon as your program in the U.S. is over.

USIEF will disburse your monthly stipend and applicable allowances, if any, through wire transfer to your U.S. bank account. Please provide to USIEF the required U.S. bank information on the prescribed format immediately after opening your U.S. account.

USIEF expects you to remain in touch and submit two reports on your U.S. experience and impressions—one to CIES at the end of your stay before leaving the U.S. and the second to Foundation after your return. Proformas for these will be given to you at the appropriate time.

www.usief.org.in

In addition, you will have to submit USIEF a mid-term report, half way through the grant period. The proforma will be sent to you.

Since all awards under the Fulbright-Nehru Program involve full or partial U.S. Government financing, visiting scholars are subject to the two-year foreign residence requirement associated with the J-1 visa. This means that you are not eligible to apply for status in the U.S. as permanent resident, H temporary worker/trainee, or L intra-company transferee until you have resided and been physically present in India for at least two years following your departure from the United States.

It has been a pleasure to participate in the awarding of this grant. We trust that you will have a profitable period of stay in the U.S. and we offer to you our congratulations upon the award of this grant.

Yours sincerely,

Diya Dutt
Deputy Director

Dear Dr.Vikrant Nain,

Greetings from SciGenom Research Foundation (SGRF)!

Congratulations!! We are happy to let you know that your 2017 Genomics Project Grant proposal has been selected for sequencing support based on review and ranking by the scientific review committee. Your proposed project will receive in-kind sequencing support.

We had an overwhelming response to our call for genomics project grants and many of the proposals were of very high quality. We are grateful to all those who took the time to submit their proposals on time. We are encouraged by this response and look forward to offer future calls for more grant proposals.

The following are provided to the selected grants proposals:

1. SGRF will assign a Scientific Grants coordinator from its end. He or she will work with you, review your proposal and samples over phone and finalize the plan to get the project started. This process will start after Oct 15th and you will receive a separate communication to set-up the date and time.
1. A terms and conditions sheet is attached to this email and it needs to be completed, signed and returned before the review and planning process can be started.
1. You are invited to attend the 2017 NGBT meeting Oct 2nd to 4th, 2017 in Bhubaneswar, India. SGRF will cover your costs towards attending the meeting as long as your attendance at the meeting is not supported by any other grant, fellowship or other sources. A separate form for this purpose is attached to this letter and should be completed and sent back by Sep 15th, 2017.
1. At the 2017 NGBT meeting you are expected to present a poster about the proposed work (results not mandatory, but supporting results [if you have any] to justify the project can be presented).
