CALL FOR PAPERS

Respected Sir/ Madam,

The 2012 International Conference on "Emerging Paradigms and Practice in Information & Communication Technology and Management" will be held from July 26 (Thursday) to July 28 (Saturday), 2012 at the School of Information and Communication Technology, Gautam Buddha University, Greater Noida, UP (India) in collaboration with MTMI, USA, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, USA and Frostburg State University, USA.

Gautam Buddha University established by the Uttar Pradesh Act (9) of 2002, commenced its first academic session at its 511 acres lush green campus at Greater Noida in August 2008. The University strives to become a world class centre for excellence in education with a special focus on serving the under privileged and economically challenged sections of the society. The University is modeled as a fully residential educational campus in line with the best institutions of higher learning across the globe. The uniqueness of its reputation is acknowledged through the format, content and pedagogy of its programs and their relevance to society. The University is recognized by the University Grants Commission under UGC Act and is a member of the Association of Indian Universities.

The School of Information and Communication Technology (SICT) was established in year 2009. The School produces skilled postgraduate professionals in the emerging areas of technologies. It offers post graduate programmes - 2 year M. Tech. ICT for Engineering Graduate, and 5 years Integrated Dual Degree B. Tech. in CSE and ECE with M. Tech./MBA with following specializations at M. Tech. Level: Software Engineering, Wireless Communication and Networks, Intelligent Systems and Robotics, and VLSI Design with modern laboratories, which provides students the skills and the knowledge relevant for meeting the challenges posed by the information and communication technology. The School has spacious classrooms as well as state-of-the-art teaching aids including overhead projectors, LCD panels along with learning management system. Our faculty members are highly qualified, pioneering in teaching and research.

This international conference brings together participants with recent research across the growing network of information and communication technology. Participants from academia as well as industry are invited to submit their research papers on advancements in information, communication technologies, and management to exchange their ideas and information. The objective of the conference is to increase the research thrust by bringing together the leading scientists, academicians, researchers, students and government officials to facilitate personal interaction, exchange & sharing of thoughts and experiences.

The conference focuses on issues of: Computer Science and Engineering, Electronic Communication Engineering, Software Engineering, Intelligent Systems and Robotics, Wireless Communication and Networks, VLSI Design, Information and Communication Technology In Human Life, Accounting, Economics, Finance, Global Competitiveness, E-Business, E-Government and E-Commerce, Digital Business, Marketing, Management, Production Management/Operations Research, Virtual Enterprise and Virtual Collaboration, Supply Chain Management, Legal, Social and Ethical issues dealing with Public-Private collaboration and partnerships; Human interfaces for Global and E-Government; Relationship Management Models, Quantitative Analysis, and Online Education, but not limited to these topics.
